

Vetsuisse-Faculty, University of Bern

The Department of Clinical Research and Veterinary Public Health of the Vetsuisse Faculty, University of Bern, invites applications for the position of a

Professor of Animal Welfare

The successful candidate will be responsible for teaching animal welfare to veterinary undergraduate and graduate students. She/he is expected to develop a research program with external funding and to closely collaborate with other research groups of the Vetsuisse-Faculty.

Applicants should hold a veterinary or life science degree with an excellent track record in research and teaching. The teaching language is German but applicants with a French or English language background are also welcome to apply. Women are encouraged to apply in accordance with the University of Bern's efforts to increase the number of female faculty members.

More detailed information can be obtained from the Dean's office.

Phone: +41 31 6312520, Email: ines.fischer@vetmed.unibe.ch

Applicants should submit their CV including a list of publications and research funding as well as a brief outline of their concept for research and teaching in English language no later than September 30, 2010 by mail and electronically to

Dean's office
Vetsuisse-Faculty, University of Bern
Länggass-Strasse 120, Postfach
CH-3001 Bern/Switzerland