

FACULTY OF VETERINARY MEDICINE, UNIVERSITY OF ZAGREB

The Veterinary Campus is set in a peaceful oasis in the eastern part of the city, located on Vjekoslav Heinzel Street, just stone's throw from historic centre of Zagreb.

ACCOMMODATION

There is a wide variety of accommodations suitable for students, private accommodation; renting a room or an entire apartment, is the most popular choice (Please note that dormitory rooms are not available at the university). As a guide average prices are 150 - 200 EUR per month for a single room in a shared flat or 250 - 600 EUR per month for an entire flat. Utilities are extra.

LEARNING CROATIAN

During your first 3 years of study weekly Croatian language classes, which are offered by School free of charge, are required to be taken to facilitate clinical rotations.

DINING HALL

A dining hall and a small café on campus serve hot meals and soft drinks at moderate prices.

FOR ADDITIONAL INFORMATION VISIT:

<http://www.vef.unizg.hr/en>

Welcome to the University of Zagreb's
Faculty of Veterinary Medicine

VETERINARY
STUDIES IN ENGLISH

4th edition

ABOUT THE STUDIES AND THE DIPLOMA

The program adapted from the Directive 2005/36/EC and aligned with the Bologna structure.

Comprised of 360 ECTS (credits)

Teaching methods are to the requirements of the European Higher Education Area (EHEA).

The duration of the course is 6 years

The diploma is fully recognised throughout the EU. The academic title: Doctor of Veterinary Medicine

SCIENTIFIC AREA OF THE STUDY PROGRAM:

Biomedicine and Health (Area)
Veterinary medicine (Field)

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS:

Documents written in English, French, Spanish, or Slovenian are acceptable, there is no need for a translation to Croatian.

- a completed Application Form (<http://www.vef.unizg.hr/en>)
- a proof of payment of the Application Fee (excluding bank processing charge/costs)
- original or certified copies of Secondary School Certificates and the Final/Leaving Secondary School Certificate of education. Applicants who are in their last year of secondary school studies at the time of the application deadline may also apply, but will be obliged to produce their qualification certificates before registration
- certificates of higher courses or degrees (college/university), if applicable
- proof of knowledge of English language (TOEFL, IELTS, CAE or other proofs or certificates)
- certificate(s) proving their "hands-on" experience by working with veterinarians in the veterinary field, if any
- medical certificate confirming general good health and physical ability to study Veterinary Medicine

The University of Zagreb, founded in 1669, is the largest university in Southeast Europe, with the Faculty of Veterinary Medicine founded in 1919.

INTERNATIONAL EVALUATION CERTIFICATES

The Faculty has been successfully evaluated and approved by the EAEVE (The European Association of Establishments for Veterinary Education) since 2003. Furthermore, all the ISO 9001 Bureau Veritas criteria concerning quality control have been met with the Faculty in possession of its valid certificate.

Number of available places on the course: 35
Annual tuition fees are 9.000 EUR

Application deadlines are:

First admission term: in early December; a maximum of 15 places will be awarded.
Second admission term: in March; a maximum of an additional 10 places will be awarded.
Third admission term: in June. All remaining places (a minimum of 10) will be awarded.

Documentation shall be submitted by e-mail to the following address:

english.studies@vef.hr

For more information:

english.studies.info@vef.hr

